GIVING BACK 365 DAYS A YEAR: JHE PRODUCTION GROUP PUTS PEOPLE FIRST

HARRISBURG, NC-BASED COMPANY DONATES MORE THAN 600 HOURS IN 2014

Harrisburg, N.C. (Dec. 2, 2014) – As the nation celebrates the third annual #GivingTuesday, Harrisburg, North Carolina based JHE Production Group is proud to give back to its community year-round. The award-winning event production company honors the spirit of the holiday every day with its “Giving for Good” program which puts people first.

Established three years ago, “Giving for Good” enables employees to select one charitable cause each month for the team to support. Over the course of 2014, the company has donated more than 600 hours to organizations including Cabarrus Victims Assistance Network (CVAN), Wings of Eagles Ranch, Special Olympics, Freedom School Partners and American Red Cross.

The cornerstone event of the program is the annual Golfing 4 Good tournament which was established in 2011 to benefit members of the JHE family and local community who are dealing with adversity in their lives. The tournament, which is 100 percent funded and staffed by JHE, has raised more than $120,000 for four worthy causes since inception.

“Giving for Good is a way to give back to those that support us year-round and honor the causes close to our employees’ hearts,” said JHE president and founder Jay Howard. “We are proud to give back and make even a small impact on our community.”

To show its support for the Charlotte area and its dedication to giving back, JHE Production Group has joined the local movement #GivingTuesdayCLT and pledged to donate another 600 hours to the community in 2015.
